

HAMPSHIRE AND THE ISLANDS HISTORIC CHURCHES TRUST & HAMPSHIRE ARCHIVES TRUST
Joint Christmas Party at Hampshire Record Office, Winchester

THURSDAY 6 DECEMBER 2018, 7.00 - 8.30pm
Please note that we are starting the evening with a talk at 7.00 pm

The evening's talk will be on 'Churches at a time of change. Using contemporary sources to inform the study of churches in 19th century Hampshire', by Barry Meehan who lives in Hampshire and is the Specialist Librarian for Bournemouth and Poole Libraries. There will also be the opportunity to view an exhibition on the First World War. As usual, there will be plenty of festive party food and wine.

Members may bring one guest each; corporate members may send up to two representatives. Cost £10 each. If you book and are then unable to come, please contact us at the earliest opportunity (sec@hihct.org.uk). Hampshire Record Office, SO23 8TH, is on the town side of Winchester Railway Station (for map and nearby car parks, see www.hants.gov.uk/archives).

- Please inform us in advance of any special needs, including accessibility needs
- Your booking is successful unless you hear otherwise after the closing date (Friday 30 November)
- No refunds are possible after the closing date (Friday 30 November)
